FINDING

There being a finding/verdict of GUILTY, defendant has been convicted as charged of the offense(s) of:

Count 7: Social Security Fraud, 42 U.S.C. § 408(a)(4)

JUDGMENT AND PROB/
COMM
ORDER

The court inquires as to whether there is any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the court, the court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered as follows:

Defendant shall be placed on probation for a term of twenty-four (24) months on Count Seven of the Indictment, under the following terms and conditions:

1. Defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the United States Probation Office, General Order 05-02, and General Order 01-05, including the three special conditions delineated in General Order 01-05.
2. Defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. Defendant shall submit to periodic drug tests thereafter, not to exceed six tests per month, as directed by the Probation Officer.
3. During the period of community supervision, defendant shall pay the special assessment and restitution in accordance with this Judgment's orders pertaining to such payment.
4. Defendant shall apply all monies received from income tax refunds to the outstanding court-ordered financial obligation. In addition, defendant shall apply all monies received from lottery winnings, inheritance, judgments and any anticipated or unexpected financial gains to the outstanding court-ordered financial obligation.
5. Defendant shall perform 120 hours of community service, as directed by the Probation Officer.
6. Defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from defendant.

All fines are waived as the court finds that defendant is unable to pay and is not likely to become able to pay any fine.

Defendant shall pay restitution to the Social Security Administration in the amount of $127,704.00. Defendant shall make monthly payments of at least $50 or ten percent of her gross monthly income, which is greater, until the amount is paid in full. Payment shall begin 30 days after the commencement of supervision. Nominal restitution payments are ordered as the court finds that defendant's economic circumstances do not allow for either immediate or future payment of the amount ordered. Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f)(3)(A), interest on the restitution is waived because defendant does not have the ability to pay interest.

Defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100 which is due immediately. Any unpaid balance shall be due during the period of probation.

Upon motion by the government, the remaining counts are hereby dismissed.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
